

LEXTECH PRESENTS

TECH TALES

FROM CODE TO COURTROOM
SEASON 2 EPISODE 2

MEDIA REGULATION, DISPUTES, AND DIGITAL SOLUTIONS: WITH
MS. SIBONEY SAGAR

ABOUT TECHTALES

Tech-Tales is LexTech's premier talk series, where we invite industry experts in topics like AI, FinTech, TMT, Data Privacy, Online Gaming, and much more! With its inception, NLUO became the first National Law University to cover these topics. These experts will discuss the recent developments in these areas and put forth their legal perspectives. These sessions are usually conducted online via platforms like Google Meet and streamed to the entire student body. It will be an interactive session and the floor will be opened to questions at the end!

ABOUT SIBONEY S. SAGAR

Siboney S. Sagar serves as Strategic Regulatory Counsel at The Walt Disney Company, providing comprehensive legal and regulatory strategy for broadcasting, entertainment, digital, and sports sectors. With expertise spanning intellectual property, competition law, dispute resolution, and public policy, Siboney collaborates with major regulators, including TRAI, CCI, and industry bodies like FICCI.

Siboney also founded RESOLVE, a pioneering alternative dispute resolution service, and is a senior mediator with the Supreme Court of India. In addition to handling complex legal disputes, Siboney is a lecturer, teaching negotiation and conflict resolution at NLSIU, ISB, and Jindal Law School.

WHAT TO EXPECT

The upcoming episode will cover a variety of topics, including:

- Siboney's journey from corporate law at firms like Amarchand Mangaldas to managing regulatory strategy at Disney Star.
- The shift from handling legal affairs in India to navigating global media regulations.
- Insights on evolving IP strategies and addressing piracy in media distribution.
- The role of dispute resolution through her platform, RESOLVE, and how mediation with the Supreme Court of India has shaped her conflict resolution approach.
- Emerging challenges in digital competition law and the impact of AI on the legal landscape in media and entertainment.
